Visitor Privacy Notice

How we use Visitor Information

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about Visitors to our school.

As a public body as we have appointed Grow Education Partners Ltd as its Data Protection Officer (DPO), the responsible contact is David Coy (contactable on david.coy@london.anglican.org, 07903 506531).

1. The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those applying to work at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Name.
- Company/Institution Details.
- Vehicle Registration Details.
- Close Circuit Television Images (CCTV) images.
- DBS Details (for verification only).
- Photo ID (for verification only).

2. Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of collecting and processing this data is to help us run the school efficiently, including but not limited to:

- Fulfil our legal obligations in relation to Keeping Children Safe in Education.
- Inform our operational procedures.
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing.

3. Our lawful basis for using this data

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information. These are defined under Data Protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- Processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the controller.
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller (the provision of education).

A full breakdown of the information we collect on visitors can be requested by contacting the school office whose details can be found in the communication section at the end of this notice.

4. Storing your data

Your data will be stored securely in the school office for the current year and then removed and held in a secure filing system for six years as set out in our Data Retention Policy.

5. Who we share information with

In order for us to legally, effectively and efficiently function we are required to share data with appropriate third parties, including but not limited to:

- Ofsted - during the course of a school inspection.
- Security organisations - to create a secure workplace for all staff.
- Our auditors, to ensure our compliance with our legal obligations.
- Public Bodies; such as NHS England.
- Professional advisers and consultants - for us to develop our services and best provide our public service.
- Police forces, courts, tribunals and security services.

6. Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it.
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for.
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you.
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with.
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this.
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others.
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under data protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

We reserve the right to verify the requesters identification by asking for Photo ID, if this proves insufficient then further ID may be required.

Your other rights regarding your data

- Withdraw their consent to processing at any time, this only relates to tasks which the school relies on consent to process the data.
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of their personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidence is supplied.
- Prevent the use of their personal data for direct marketing.
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests.
- Request a copy of agreements under which their personal data is transferred outside of the European Economic Area.
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement, that might negatively affect them).
- Request a cease to any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress.
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances.
- Make a complaint to the ICO.
- Ask for their personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances).

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact Arjinder Sunner, Executive Head Teacher,
