Anti-Bullying Week

It was Anti-Bullying Week this week and during assembly and PSHE lessons children have learned the importance of reaching out to stop bullying.

We are an asthma friendly school

We were awarded Asthma Friendly School status by The North West London Health and Care partnership this month. This award recognises our efforts to enhance the quality of care for children who face the challenges of asthma. Thank you in particular to Mrs Hook, our Safeguarding, Pastoral and Welfare Officer, for supporting our pupils' health, resulting in us achieving this award.

PTA fireworks evening

The River Garden pub was packed last Saturday for the PTA's fireworks evening and everyone had a great time.

Thank you to our PTA for organising such a fantastic event and raising over £3,000 for the school which will go towards furniture and books for a new school library.

Reception parent phonics workshop

Miss Churchill ran a phonics workshop for Reception parents on Thursday to provide information about our new approach to teaching phonics-Read Write Inc. Thank you to the parents that were able to attend.

You can find out more information about Read Write Inc on their website.
